ARBITRATION TREATY

State Department Placed in a Peculiar Position by Senate's Secrecy.

UNIVERSAL POSTAL CONGRESS

Delegates Will Be Entertained by the President and Postmaster General Next Week—Daughters of the Revolution Indignant—Charged With Embezzling Columbian University Funds.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The failure of the senate to make public its action on the arbitration treaty has created an unusual condition of affairs. There is no official information that the senate has taken any action, or that the treaty has been rejected, or that the defeated treaty was different from the one originally submitted.

All that is known officially is that a treaty was concluded by Secretary Olney and Sir Julian Pauncefote and sent to the senate. It then went into executive session, so that no official information has been given as to the amendments made and the final action taken. The secrecy of executive session does not permit the state department or the British government to be notified as to what has occurred. It is felt to be due to the other contracting party to the treaty that some notice should be given as to what has been done, and as to the form of the treaty when it was rejected. In case the senate never should make its action known, the last official record of the treaty would be its submission to the senate four months ago.

POSTAL CONGRESS.

Postmaster General Will Entertain Them Next Week.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The question of transit of mails through intermediary countries was threshed over yesterday at a meeting of the subcommittee on transit of the "ways and means" committee of the universal postal congress. The committee met early and spent several hours in going over the subject. Mr. Havelar of Holland, the representative of a country which, perhaps, would have more reason than any other to oppose the projected transit reforms, presided. The deliberations gave the delegates an opportunity to present their several views, but developed no definite result. The congress itself is taking a recess until next week, when it will meet probably to receive the report of the subcommittee upon the latter's notification that it is in readiness to communicate its findings.

Meanwhile the delegates are devoting themselves to a study of the problems before the body and to a general interchange of views.

Postmaster General Gary will give a reception to the congress next Tuesday evening and President McKinley will entertain them later. This was announced yesterday at a meeting of the committee on arrangements. An outing on the Chesapeake bay and Potomac river also was arranged. The trip will be made the latter part of next week if present plans are carried out. The itinerary includes Old Point Comfort, Richmond, Norfolk and Newport News.

Unfounded Reports.
WASHINGTON, May 8.—The executive board of the Daughters of the Revolution has been in session here for several days with Mrs. Stevenson, wife of the former vice president, presiding. It has been determined to visit the Tennessee Centennial exposition on Oct. 19, when the Daughters will celebrate the battle of Yorktown. When inquiries were made as to reports of disension in the association, it was stated that the executive board would not dignify the reports with attention, as they were unfounded and inspired by malice.

Alleged Embezzlement of Funds.
WASHINGTON, May 8.—Robert H. Martin, formerly treasurer of the Columbian University of this city, was arrested yesterday and taken to the police court on charges of embezzling funds of the institution. The complaint was made by President Whitman of Columbian University and Trustees Woodward and Green. The defalcation is placed at $30,850. Martin was released on $5,000 security.

Ex-Senator Call Withdraws.
TALLAHASSEE, Fla., May 8.—Ex-Senator Call yesterday withdrew from the senatorial race and most of his strength went to John N. Stockton of Jacksonville, a member of the house who was elected as an independent. There was no election.

OSHKOSH, Wis., May 8.—The National Manufacturing company, which was branded by the attorney general as a sash, door and blind trust, and proceeded against on that ground, filed yesterday the formal papers dissolving the corporation.

Taylor, colored, recorder of deeds for the District of Columbia, called at the white house yesterday and it is understood that his resignation will be tendered in a day or two and that his successor will be ex-Representative Cheatham, also colored, of North Carolina. Taylor came here from Kansas City.

FISH TRUST.

Alleged That a Combine Is Forming to Control the Market.

CHICAGO, May 8.—A scheme is on foot to control the fishing interests of the Great Lakes through the formation of a company controlled by English capital. A secret meeting to discuss the project has been held here and the concern most actively interested in Chicago is the A. Booth Packing company. At the meeting only one other Chicago concern was represented, though all the big concerns interested in the fish business were urged to attend. The object is to corner all the fishing interests, the new concern being in a position to make contracts with fishermen at prices set by the proposed trust and also to control the price to consumers.

TRADE PROSPECTS.

Bradstreet's Weekly Review of the Condition of Business.

NEW YORK, May 8.—Bradstreet's today says: Favorable business features this week include the continued decline of water in flooded districts of the Mississippi river valley in a portion of which planting has begun; better demand for plants at Baltimore, St. Louis, Omaha, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Sioux Falls; larger sales of iron ore to western furnaces and a revival of activity among country merchants in some central western states. Unfavorable trade features include the further decline of prices for Bessemer pigiron and steel billets, with production of pigiron in excess of consumption and the prospect favorable for blowing out a number of stacks. Cool weather west has checked the retail demand and complaints are received from wholesale dealers in shoes, clothing and drygoods. Low temperature has retarded the growth of cotton and corn in Texas and in Kentucky the leaf tobacco crop will be short. The lake trade outlook is not satisfactory; the movement of building material is slow; mercantile collections show no improvement and the spring trade in general continues disappointing.

MISSISSIPPI RIVER.

Indications of a Steady Decline—Planters Returning to Their Plantations.

NATCHEZ, Miss., May 8.—The river last night recorded a decline of one-tenth of a foot and the stage of the water above gives promise that a slow decline will be shown henceforth. The Tensas water from the Biggs crevasse showed a smaller rise in the past 24 hours than since the flood reached the section of country adjacent to Natchez. Some planters who had removed their stock from the bottoms have begun arrangements to take it back and prepare for planting, but others claim the rise now in progress in Black river will push the crevasse water much higher in Tensas basin and will make no move toward resuming work on their plantations until the stage of water at Vicksburg is such as to check the inflow through the Biggs crevasse just below there.

FAREWELL TO BAYARD.

Retiring Ambassador Given a Banquet by the American Society.

LONDON, May 8.—The farewell banquet given last night by the American society in London to Mr. Bayard, former ambassador of the United States, was attended by 270 guests. The company included Ambassador Hay, Mrs. Hay and all the members of the American embassy, the lord bishop of London (Dr. Creighton), Baron Russell of Killowen, the lord chief justice, Sir Francis and Lady Jeune, Sir Edwin Arnold, Sir Henry Thompson, Lady Randolph Churchill, Lady Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vivian and Miss Genevieve Ward, the actress. But there was a notable absence of the majority of the best known Americans residing in London.

SHORTAGE IN FUNDS.

Carlessness Is Given as a Reason For the Disappearance of the Money.

SIDNEY, O., May 8.—In the change of city treasurers here a shortage of $3,268 was developed. The shortage dates back to 1874, when S. McCullough was treasurer. He served as treasurer until his death in 1891, and since then John McCune has been serving. The shortage came about, it is thought, through carelessness, as there are no evidences of fraud. McCune says he knew of the matter when he entered the office, but thought nothing would come of it. Since turning over his books McCune checked over his bankbooks and found a credit of $2,397, reducing the shortage that much.

IN MEMORY OF GRANT.

Yang Yu Plants a Tree Where the General Lay So Long.

NEW YORK, May 8.—As a tribute to the memory of General Grant, Yang Yu, former minister from China to the United States, has planted a tree in the ground under which the casket of General Grant lay for 14 years. The tree is called Ginkgo-ba by Chinese botanists, and is said to grow to a height of about 100 feet.

GREEKS PREFER WAR

Would Rather Be Exterminated Than Withdraw From Crete.

DANGER OF THE ROYAL FAMILY.

Associated Press Account of the Fighting at and Around Pharsalos—Greeks Mowed Down on a Stone Bridge—Turks Meet With Strong Resistance at Vasil, but Capture the Place.

PHARSALOS, May 8.—An engagement began early yesterday near Velestino and lasted several hours, the Greeks being finally beaten back. They have retreated upon Volo, sharply pursued by the Turks.

The consuls at Volo have decided to ask the foreign warships to land detachments, and have promised to protect the town.

An Athens dispatch says the intervention communications from the powers have not yet been received. The Greek government has notified the powers that the Greek fleet has established an effective blockade of the coast of Epirus.

It is said positively that if the powers insist on the withdrawal of the Greek troops from Crete as a condition of mediation, Greece will reply that she prefers war, even to extermination.

GREEK RETREAT.

Terrible Slaughter at Pharsalos—Uncertain Aim of Turkish Batteries.

LONDON, May 8.—The Associated Press correspondent at Pharsalos under date of May 6, writing of the fighting of that day says: "The Turkish army tonight is bivouacking in the 18 villages surrounding Pharsalos, captured from the Greeks. The battle began at 9 o'clock in the morning. After skirmishes between the advance posts of the opposing forces, the Greek artillery opened fire with great precision. But the Turks pushed forward exposing themselves to the enemies' fire with the greatest sangfroid.

"The Greeks then made a fatal error in leaving the commanding positions which they occupied and retiring upon the plain, which was commanded on all points by our batteries, which were brought into action so soon as the Greeks left the hills. The scene which followed was both interesting and cruel. The Greeks from all parts of the plain were converging toward a stone bridge spanning the river, and which was the only means of getting over. The mass of humanity at this point was constantly growing when the roar of the Turkish artillery began. The Turks obtained the exact range of the enemy and shell after shell fell and exploded in the midst of the fugitives. The havoc created by the shrapnel was terrible. Gradually, however, through this devastating fire, the greater part of the Turks crossed the river. The Turks, who were then covering the plain like bees, met with a strong resistance while attacking Vasil, where the Greeks from hidden positions opened a furious fire. In the face of this the Turks advanced with marvelous temerity and captured the village. Not so much by force of arms as by the fear which their splendid insouciance inspired in the enemy. Owing to the fact that it was not designed to commence the decisive engagement until the Turkish division, intending to take the enemy in flank only, arrived half an hour before the close of the combat yesterday, having marched 30 miles.

"The Greek guns while they opened well, ended badly while ours served even better than usual. The Turkish attack upon Vasil was made without any previous plan. The men were ordered to capture the place and they advanced, quietly shooting as though hunting. The Greeks maintained a withering fire. I saw a Turk wounded in the leg, advancing to the attack on all fours. "During the day the Turks captured

SERIOUS AFFAIR.

Two Angry Men Use Knife and Pistol on Each Other.

BRAZIL, Ind., May 8.—Albert Wolfe and Henry Stangle met on the streets yesterday and began shooting and cutting each other. There has been trouble between the two men for some time, Wolfe being already under $500 bond to keep the peace with Stangle. When the men met, Stangle, it is alleged, drew a revolver and Wolfe a knife, with the result that the latter was shot in the breast and the former cut three times across the breast and once down the back. Then Wolfe disarmed Stangle and fired three shots at him as the latter fled. It is feared that the wound in Stangle's back has penetrated the lung, as he is in a critical condition. Wolfe has only an ugly flesh wound. The latter is the son of the proprietor of the Clay County Enterprise.

Struck by a Train.

BLUFFTON, Ind., May 8.—Gus Bower, a timber buyer of Kenton, O., was struck by a Cloverleaf train yesterday and knocked 15 feet resulting in a contusion of the skull.

SOON BE IN THE TOLLS.

Mrs. Baum Will Bring the Slayer of Her Husband to Justice.

MIDDLETOWN, O., May 8.—Someone, either from this city or Miamisburg, will be arrested soon for the murder of Charles Baum at Miamisburg six years ago. The case has been resurrected and Mrs. Baum intends to bring the slayer of her husband to the bar of justice. Three men from this place were at the Baum House in Miamisburg, the night of the murder. Detective John T. Norris is now working on the case.

Censured the American Federation.

CLEVELAND, May 8.—A resolution introduced earlier in the week at the Bakers' convention censuring the American Federation of Labor for endorsing the free silver movement was adopted late yesterday. The delegates took the ground that the Federation, by its action, had entered politics.

Ohio Republicans.

COLUMBUS, O., May 8.—The Republican State Central committee late yesterday decided to hold the state convention in Toledo, June 22 and 23. Hon. Charles H. Grosvenor of Athens will be temporary chairman. There will be 1,050 delegates in the convention, the largest in the history of the party in the state.

ROYAL FAMILY.

They Rarely Leave the Palace and Are Insulted on the Street.

LONDON, May 8.—The Rome correspondent of the Daily Mail says: Private news from Athens which has escaped censorship shows the position of royalty there to be more perilous than ever. The members of the royal family rarely leave the palace and their portraits have been withdrawn from public view. When the queen and princesses visit the hospitals they are openly insulted in the streets. The palace is watched by revolutionary agents lest their majesties should attempt to flee the country. It is said that Turkey is really the chief hindrance to the powers proposing mediation, as the porte claims the right to finish the war in the ordinary way.

Great Skill of the Turks.

LONDON, May 8.—The correspondent of The Times at Pharsalos says: "Great skill is displayed in the strategy of the Turks. In the fighting at Velestino the Turks under Hakkı Pasha stormed the first line of the intrenchments of the Greek, who abandoned the second line during the night. Hakkı Pasha then occupied the position, the Greeks having retreated upon Volo. The whole length of railway connecting Trikkala, Velestino and Larissa is now in possession of the Turks. This second general flight of the Greek army shows plainly that they will refuse to fight a pitched battle, but their method of conducting a campaign is difficult to understand. The general idea is that the war is over."

ALL FIREMEN.

POMEROY, O., May 8.—Recently the city council passed an ordinance compelling every man not exempt by the state law to perform two days' labor on the streets. Firemen do not have to work, and as a result new fire companies are springing up in every ward. Even the colored people have organized a brigade. It now looks like the male population of the town will be composed of firemen and ex-soldiers in a week.

Ex-State Grain Inspector Accused of Embezzlement.

CHICAGO, May 8.—The grand jury returned seven indictments against Dwight W. Andrews, ex-state grain inspector, and Benjamin F. Jenkins, ex-cashier of the state grain inspector's office. Both are accused of embezzling state funds. Andrews is accused of embezzling a total of $11,540, and his bonds are fixed at $9,500. Jenkins is charged with embezzling $3,500. He is accused of having been accessory in all the charges against Andrews and his bonds are fixed at $9,000. Both are out of the city.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, May 7, 1897.

Increased harmony in republican ranks and increased dissensions among democrats are the leading features of this week's developments in Washington. The republican members of the senate finance committee, who have been laboriously engaged upon the tariff bill, have exercised such good judgment and tact in shaping the bill that there is reason to believe that every republican vote and the vote of every man who in past years co-operated with the party will be for the bill, and this insures its early passage and enactment as a law. While this drift toward harmony is clearly apparent among the republicans, the mad rush in the direction of party dissensions is even more apparent among the democrats. Half of the members of that party in the house have chosen to follow the leadership of that most erratic and extreme of the populist leaders, Jerry Simpson, while the other half have fallen into line behind Congressman Bailey, thus absolutely dividing in two equal factions the democratic party in the house of representatives. When it is remembered that there is still a third faction of the party in the Cleveland element, and even a fourth in that wing of the party which is now supporting protection, it will be seen that the divisions are such as to leave the democratic party in a very much distracted condition, while the republicans are not only thoroughly harmonious, but bringing back into their ranks, on the tariff question, those who temporarily alienated themselves on currency issues.

THE DIVIDED DEMOCRACY.

The important feature of the week was the test vote in the house on Jerry Simpson's demand that the Speaker should appoint the committee. This had been a troublesome question to the democracy, for that element which favored co-operation with the populists in the last campaign had clung to Simpson and supported his demand, while Mr. Bailey, who was the democratic caucus nominee for the speakership, has opposed Simpson's proposition. This had already created a division between the members of the party favoring a continuance of the alliance with the populists and those who were opposed to further association with this element of American politics. The feeling between these two factions had grown intense, and the final struggle came in the vote on a motion to require the speaker to appoint committees. Upon this motion one-half of the democrats voted with Bailey after he had made a strong appeal to the democrats in the house to cease quarrelling among themselves, while the other half voted with Simpson. It thus appears that the democratic party in the house is split squarely in the middle upon the question of further co-operation with the populists. This is especially interesting in view of the fact that all the democrats in the house belong to that wing of the democracy which supported the Bryan ticket in 1896. This makes it apparent that even the Bryan wing of the party is split in the middle. When it is taken into consideration that the gold democrats are still maintaining their organization as a party, and that the considerable section of the silver democrats are now favoring protection and even voting for it in congress, it will be seen that the democratic party is more hopelessly divided today even than it was in the campaign of 1896.

THE TARIFF BILL.

The tariff bill has been completed, so far as relates to the senate finance committee and is now ready for consideration by the senate. How long it will be before that body cannot of course be foretold, but outlook for reasonable degree of speed in its consideration appears to be good, and there is good reason to believe that it will be upon the statute books by the end of the fiscal year. Members of both parties are recognizing the fact that nothing so disturbs the business conditions of the country, both among the manufacturers and others as the pendency of a tariff measure of any sort, because of the fact that business contracts and undertakings cannot be entered upon without definite knowledge as to what the prices on imported articles or the rates of duty will be. These facts are leading men, irrespective of party, to a desire for prompt action since they know that a business revival cannot be expected by anybody until the tariff can be put into operation and the immense stock of foreign goods now coming into the country disposed of and the market opened to our own manufacturers.

CHEERING NEWS FOR THE FARMERS.

The department of agriculture is receiving very gratifying reports from the farming community. The continuation of high prices for wheat, the unusual foreign demand for corn and the activity among farmers in preparing to make an earnest experiment in the production of sugar beets, combine to make the condition among that class of population unusually healthful and encouraging. "Dollar wheat," for which farmers had scarcely dared to hope, was co-incidental with the incoming of McKinley, while the extraordinary demand for their corn adds to their general encouragement. Coupled with this comes the activity and interest felt in the experiments which are to be made in all parts of the country in the production of our own sugar, and it is apparent that the farming community is not only feeling the return of prosperity, but is occupying its mind with cheerful thoughts and prospects rather than the gloomy ones which were a constant feature of the four years of the Cleveland administration.

POLITICAL BREVITIES.

There is no secret about the desire of Claude Matthews to succeed Senator Turpie at Washington.

Dr. R. D. Hawley, of Columbus, candidate for congress, says he expects the solid support of the Bartholomew county delegation, the Herald to the contrary notwithstanding.

John Overmyer, the banker of North Vernon, who aspires to rattle around in the seat in congress so long filled by Judge Holman, has issued his platform for the campaign before the democratic convention "and its liberal allies."

The new pension board as mentioned in another column is all right. All three of the members are reputable physicians each of whom enjoys a good practice. They will render intelligent service as pension examining surgeons.

Hon. John Overmyer, of North Vernon, has resigned his position as president of a bank and has become a candidate for congress. Mr. Overmyer's political career has been so checkered that it is thought he can successfully cater to the whims and caprices of all political parties. He is now a democrat of the regulation W. J. Bryan variety but has been a republican, and has vacillated between the big tents sufficiently to become acquainted with the side shows.—Greensburg Standard.

The Evening News aside from the issue of Mr. Miller's sidewalk is incidentally favoring the educational trust in Indiana which went before the last legislature asking for special appropriations amounting to about $300,000, over and above the special tax for the three state institutions which amount to $200,000 annually. A great friend of the people is "The Only."

A Valuable Prescription.

Editor Morrison, of Worthington Ind., "Sun," writes: "You have a valuable prescription in Electric Bitters, and I can cheerfully recommend it for Constipation and Sick Headache, and as a general system tonic it has no equal." Mrs. Annie Stehle, 2025 Cottage Grove Ave., Chicago, was all run down, could not eat nor digest food, had a backache which never left her and felt tired and weary, but six bottles of Electric Bitters restored her health and renewed her strength. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Get a bottle at Wm. F. Peter's drug store.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 8. — Governor Mount has received notice from the war department that Lieutenant William T. May of the Fifteenth infantry, U. S. A., has been assigned to duty in this city as the military instructor of the Indiana National Guard. He will succeed Lieutenant Thomas M. Defrees of this city, who has been stationed here for several years, and who has made application to be retired on account of poor health. Lieutenant May is a West Point man. He was originally from Crawfordsville, this state.

HEAVY DAMAGES.

Jury Gives a Woman $5,000 For Falling on a Sidewalk.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., May 8. — Mrs. Julia Falk, a widow, was yesterday awarded $5,000 damages in her action against the city of Huntington by a jury in the Wabash court. In 1895 Mrs. Falk fell on a board sidewalk here, sustaining injuries which produced almost entire paralysis. She commenced suit for $5,000. The city took a change of venue to Wabash county and the case has been on trial since Wednesday. The jury rendered a verdict for the full amount. This is the third heavy verdict against this city in damage cases in the last 18 months in the Wabash court.

RUN DOWN AND KILLED.

Old Man Crawling Over a Trestle Mistaken For a Hog by an Engineer.

ORLEANS, Ind., May 8. — An old man named Hutchason was run over and killed by a train on the Orleans branch of the Monon yesterday at Lost river, four miles south of here. Both legs were cut off above the knees. He was about 80 years old. He was crawling on the trestle and was mistaken by the engineer for a hog until too near to stop the engine. He is supposed to have been demented. His remains were taken to Paoli for burial.

Close Call For a Stump Dynamiter.

CHESTERFIELD, Ind., May 8. — John M. Bronnenberg, a farmer near here, engaged in blowing up stumps with dynamite charged five stumps and lighted the fuses. Four of the charges exploded, but the fifth hung fire. Becoming satisfied that the fuse had failed, he was about to apply a second one when there was an explosion which tore the stump to pieces. One section of it struck Bronnenberg's felt hat, tearing it off his head and carrying it 100 feet away. Bronnenberg lay for an hour unconscious.

Christian Ministers to Meet.

WARABASH, Ind., May 8. — The Northern Indiana Christian Ministerial association will meet here next week. Secretary of State William D. Owen, who was formerly a minister of the church, will deliver an address on "Alexander Campbell." The association was organized 33 years ago. Elder L. L. Carpenter of this city was a charter member, of which there were 14. All are dead except Mr. Carpenter, who has officiated at the funeral of seven of the organizers. The organization now has 125 members.

Secured Money and Jewelry.

MUNCIE, Ind., May 8. — John White's residence, in the central part of the city, was robbed yesterday in broad daylight of $50 and a quantity of jewelry. The folks were all away except a 16-year-old nephew. A man stepped into the house, covered the boy with a revolver and proceeded to help himself. When leaving, he fired a shot to scare the boy, who fainted.

Livery Stable Burns.

MUNCIE, Ind., May 8. — Loan Franklin's livery stable caught fire yesterday from a defective connection of an electric light wire and 20 vehicles, 200 bushels of corn, 20 tons of hay and other property were destroyed. The horses, 200 head, were cut loose and driven from the stable. Loss, $2,000 on contents and $3,000 on building.

Accident in a Tinplate Factory.

ELWOOD, Ind., May 8. — A son of Aaron Kinzie, while in the tinplate factory yesterday, was caught by a line shaft in the cold rolls and whirled around until his body and head were terribly crushed. His death was instantaneous.

Appointed to a Cadetship.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., May 8. — Congressman Miers has recommended the appointment of Harry Semple Watts of this city to the vacant cadetship at West Point. The vacancy was caused by the failure of Ira Reedy of this city to pass examination.

Morgan Chandler's Will.

GREENSBURG, Ind., May 8. — Mr. E. E. Galbreath of Los Angeles, Cal., through his attorneys, will institute suit for the Hancock circuit court to set aside the last will and testament of the late Morgan Chandler, cashier of the Greenfield Banking company. The estate is worth about $50,000.

Narrow Escape From Suffocation.

BROWNSTOWN, Ind., May 8. — Charles Hawn and other employees were digging a deep trench for drainage purposes when the earth caved in, completely burying Hawn. He was dug out barely in time to prevent suffocation.

Kouts Business Man Missing.

KOUTS, Ind., May 8. — Charles Stendahl left here last Saturday for Chicago to buy goods, and since that time no word has been heard from him. He took along $300 and his family and friends fear he has been foully dealt with.

THAT AERIAL WONDER AGAIN.

Seen By a Number of Seymour's Truthful Citizens.

That air ship has been seen again, and this time by so many of our good citizens that it would be hazardous to treat the matter as a joke. About nine o'clock last evening a huge body was discovered high up in the air and approaching our city at fearful speed from the south. The alarm was given, and instantly the streets were thronged with wondering gazers.

Sure enough, there it was. Huge in proportions, it hung like an evil monster in the air, but the darkness of the night made it impossible to see anything but the headlight as it shot through space like a Chinese sky rocket. It was too far away to discern the flutter of its gigantic wings as it cut the air, or to hear the strains of the brass band which it is said to carry on board. Mayor Balsey was slaking his thirst at Cox's soda counter when the appearance of the air-ship was announced, and he at once took to the street and watched the flight of the aerial wonder with as much interest as he did the course of rebel shells at Gettysburg. Henry Price said it was Fish Commissioner Sweeney looking for violators of the new fish law; John Ross said it was Coxey's army "keeping off the grass." Dr. Jim Shields said it was a committee of politicians from Louisville on their way to Chicago to help their Illinois friends defeat the Humphrey bill.

Meanwhile, as the light in the air-ship faded away in the distance, two small boys, who had sent up the paper balloon, sneaked off home and laughed themselves to sleep.

LAFAYETTE'S FAMOUS VISIT.

There Was Great Excitement Over His Trip to the United States.
Jean Fraley Hollowell, who writes in The Ladies' Home Journal of "When Lafayette Rode Into Philadelphia," says that "it is difficult to understand at this late date what a furor of excitement passed over this country when Lafayette arrived here in America. The visit is a historic event to be remembered while memory endures. During President Monroe's second administration the United States extended its invitation to Lafayette. He arrived at Staten Island on Aug. 15 (Sunday), 1824, accompanied by his son, George Washington Lafayette, and also by his son-in-law. A formal reception took place on the following day, the first fruits of the most abundant harvest of welcome which Lafayette was to receive during his year of travel through the United States.

"Lafayette was 67 years old when he visited America as the nation's guest and carried his years lightly. His head was shaped like that of Burns. He had a high forehead, long, aquiline nose and a rather thin face. His hair was sandy and quite plentiful. His eyes were dark gray, restless and twinkling, his eyebrows light in color, but heavily marked. His mouth was firm, and his lips smiled courteously at the holiday crowd assembled to do him honor. The general was not very tall, but well made. His face was distinctly pleasant, and his expression was an odd mixture of shrewdness, decision and gay good humor. His costume was a swallow-tailed coat and trousers of dark brown, with a great display of white waistcoat and neckcloth. A bunch of seals hung from a broad black ribbon at his waist. Over his shoulders hung a cloth riding cloak, greenish blue in color and lined with red."

Kipling's Famous Poem.

It is the sentiment, says Arlo Bates in The Atlantic, and not the object, which arouses sympathy and kindles the imagination. No mistake could be more complete than to suppose that in this poem is to be found any argument in favor of the use of machinery as material for poetry. In "McAndrew's Hymn" it is the character of the stanch old engineer and his feelings by which the reader is moved. The wonders of the great engine are a hindrance, and not a help, if they are looked at in any way other than through the eyes of McAndrew. The piece succeeds or fails to the degree in which it makes his emotion real and contagious to the reader, and that, too, as emotion pure and simple, quite without regard to what has excited it. In so far as the attention is caught by tall, crank, throws, feeding pump and "purrin' dynamo" — finely suggestive as is the epithet in this last — the emotional effect is weakened at the expense of the intellectual.

John Wilhelm Surprised and Surrenders.

Last night when the members of Success Division U. R. K. of P. "lined up" One of the members was "voted absent." At fifteen minutes past nine o'clock, Capt. Graessle ordered the company down on the brick streets, but to their surprise they soon found themselves on "the march." After making a few turns "to the right," the command "halt," was given. No sooner were the men "lined up," than one of their number was commanded to go in and make inquiry for the absent Sir Knight. His best girl answered the call, and said, "He's present." He appeared on the veranda, and blushing made the following speech: "Sir Knights, captain and brothers, quietly I will fall in line, march to Frank Gates' ice cream parlors and 'set 'em up.'" This he did and in consideration of his knightly liberality the "boys" remitted the fine, he promising never again to absent himself on "drill night."

Poisons engendered by food fermenting in a dyspeptic stomach are the direct cause of rheumatism, gout, bronchitis, liver and kidney complaints, asthma, pneumonia and many nervous ailments.

These results are prevented by the use of the Shaker Digestive Cordial, a remedy discovered and prepared by the Shakers of Mount Lebanon, N. Y. It is in itself a food and has power to digest other food taken with it. Thus it reeds the diseased stomach and finally masters the worst cases of dyspepsia. It acts promptly and fresh strength and increase of weight soon follows. The first dose taken immediately after eating, abates the pain and distress so dreaded by dyspeptics. Trial bottles — enough to prove its merit — 10 cents. Laxol is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in the place of Castor Oil.

AFTER THE QUACKS.

State Medical Board to Begin Issuing Licenses Next Week.

The state medical board adjourned yesterday noon after announcing that it would be ready by next Friday to begin the work of licensing the six thousand practicing physicians in the state. Members of the board stated that they proposed to exercise the utmost care in excluding all "quacks" and "itinerants" from the practice. They proposed to make a rigid examination of the diplomas of practicing physicians and require an examination from all those who do not hold a diploma from some college in good repute in the profession. They declare that Indiana has suffered greatly from incompetent doctors and they propose to use all the power at their command to put an end to irregular practice. Inasmuch as those physicians who are refused a license have a right under the law to appeal to the circuit court, it seems likely that the courts may have their hands full in reviewing the work of the medical board.

John P. McLean's Great Newspaper.

Without a single exception, there is no paper of greater or more interest than the Cincinnati Enquirer; or a more successful publisher than its proprietor, Mr. John P. McLean.

The old-time prices for the Daily Enquirer have been maintained, and its circulation largely increased each year; hard times and cheaper journals failing to arrest its onward march and high appreciation of the public for its true worth and merit.

The Weekly Enquirer at beginning of the campaign year was offered at 50 cents a year, and its circulation increased by the addition of over 200,000 new subscribers; the most substantial and coveted testimonial a publisher could desire.

When asked for the secret of such success, Mr. McLean frankly answers: The Enquirer has no opinions to force upon its patrons, it simply prints the facts and tells the truth that the reader may form his own opinions. By maintaining the price of the paper, more news and greater variety can be furnished, and every class of business interests catered to, which a cheaper journal cannot afford.

The very liberal support given the Enquirer by the public at large, makes it incumbent upon the management to serve it faithfully with zeal and enterprise in minor matters as well as those of greater magnitude.

POLITICAL BREVITIES.

Senator Fairbanks has recommended the appointment of the following pension board for Jackson county, Dr. Lindley Ruddick, of Seymour; Dr. James K. Ritter, of Brownstown; Dr. P. A. Zuring, of Tampico.

Senator Fairbanks and First Assistant Postmaster General Heath had a consultation yesterday over a proposition to create a new division in the postal service, with headquarters at Indianapolis. Mr. Heath was of opinion that the change would not be made without specific authority under an act of Congress, but he was not certain on that point, and promised to look into it. It may be assumed that if it lies in General Heath's power to create an Indiana division it will be done.

The Best Remedy for Rheumatism.

From the Fairhaven, N. Y., Register.

Mr. James Rowland of this village, states that for twenty-five years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism. A few nights ago she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy. She sent Mr. Rowland for the doctor, but he had read of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and instead of going for the physician he went to the store and secured a bottle of it. His wife did not approve of Mr. Rowland's purchase at first, but nevertheless applied the Balm thoroughly and in an hour's time was able to go to sleep. She now applies it whenever she feels an ache or a pain and finds that it always gives relief. He says that no medicine which she had used ever did her as much good. ARBITRATION TREATY

State Department Placed in a Peculiar Position by Senate's Secrecy.

UNIVERSAL POSTAL CONGRESS

Delegates Will Be Entertained by the President and Postmaster General Next Week—Daughters of the Revolution Indignant—Charged With Embezzling Columbian University Funds.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The failure of the senate to make public its action on the arbitration treaty has created an unusual condition of affairs. There is no official information that the senate has taken any action, or that the treaty has been rejected, or that the defeated treaty was different from the one originally submitted.

All that is known officially is that a treaty was concluded by Secretary Olney and Sir Julian Pauncefote and sent to the senate. It then went into executive session, so that no official information has been given as to the amendments made and the final action taken. The secrecy of executive session does not permit the state department or the British government to be notified as to what has occurred. It is felt to be due to the other contracting party to the treaty that some notice should be given as to what has been done, and as to the form of the treaty when it was rejected. In case the senate never should make its action known, the last official record of the treaty would be its submission to the senate four months ago.

POSTAL CONGRESS.

Postmaster General Will Entertain Them Next Week.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The question of transit of mails through intermediary countries was thrashed over yesterday at a meeting of the subcommittee on transit of the "ways and means" committee of the universal postal congress. The committee met early and spent several hours in going over the subject. Mr. Havelarr of Holland, the representative of a country which, perhaps, would have more reason than any other to oppose the projected transit reform, presided. The deliberations gave the delegates an opportunity to present their several views, but developed no definite result. The congress itself is taking a recess until next week, when it will meet probably to receive the report of the subcommittee upon the latter's notification that it is in readiness to communicate its findings.

Meanwhile the delegates are devoting themselves to a study of the problems before the body and to a general interchange of views.

Postmaster General Gary will give a reception to the congress next Tuesday evening and President McKinley will entertain them later. This was announced yesterday at a meeting of the committee on arrangements. An outing on the Chesapeake bay and Potomac river also was arranged. The trip will be made the latter part of next week. The itinerary includes Old Point Comfort, Richmond, Norfolk and Newport News.

Unfounded Reports.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The executive board of the Daughters of the Revolution has been in session here for several days with Mrs. Stevenson, wife of the former vice president, presiding. It has been determined to visit the Tennessee Centennial exposition on Oct. 19, when the daughters will celebrate the battle of Yorktown. When inquiries were made as to reports of disunion in the association, it was stated that the executive board would not dignify the reports with attention, as they were unfounded and inspired by malice.

Alleged Embezzlement of Funds.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Robert H. Martin, formerly treasurer of the Columbian University of this city, was arrested yesterday and taken to the police court on charges of embezzling funds of the institution. The complaint was made by President Whitman of Columbian University and Trustees Woodward and Green. The defalcation is placed at $80,850. Martin was released on $5,000 security.

Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Mr. Cannon of Illinois, ex-chairman of the house committee on appropriations, announced yesterday that the sundry civil appropriation bill will be called up for consideration in the house next Monday if it is found that there is a quorum present and members are requested to attend the session of the house on that day.

Recorder of Deeds.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—C. H. J. Taylor, colored, recorder of deeds for the District of Columbia, called at the white house yesterday and it is understood that his resignation will be tendered in a day or two and that his successor will be ex-Representative Cheatham, also colored, of North Carolina. Taylor came here from Kansas City.

FISH TRUST.

Alleged That a Combine Is Forming to Control the Fisheries.

CHICAGO, May 8.—A scheme is on foot to control the fishing interests of the Great Lakes through the formation of a company controlled by English capital. A secret meeting to discuss the project has been held here and the concern most actively interested in Chicago is the A. Booth Packing company. At the meeting only one other Chicago concern was present, though all the big concerns interested in the fish business were urged to attend. The object is to corner all the fishing interests, the new concern being in a position to make contracts with fishermen at prices set by the proposed trust and also to control the prices to consumers.

TRADE PROSPECTS.

Bradstreet's Weekly Review of the Condition of Business.

NEW YORK, May 8.—Bradstreet's today says: Favorable business features this week include the continued decline of water in flooded districts of the Mississippi river valley in a portion of which planting has begun; better demand for staples at Baltimore, St. Louis, Omaha, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Sioux Falls; larger sales of iron ore to western furnaces and a revival of activity among country merchants in some central western states. Unfavorable trade features include the further decline of prices for Bessemer pigiron and steel billets, with production of pigiron in excess of consumption and the prospect favorable for blowing out a number of stacks. Cool weather west has checked the retail demand and complaints are received from wholesale dealers in shoes, clothing and drygoods. Low temperature has retarded the growth of cotton and corn in Texas and in Kentucky the leaf tobacco crop will be short. The lake trade outlook is not satisfactory; the movement of building material is slow; mercantile collections show no improvement and the spring trade in general continues disappointing.

MISSISSIPPI RIVER.

Indications of a Steady Decline—Planters Returning to Their Plantations.

NATCHEZ, Miss., May 8.—The river last night recorded a decline of one-tenth of a foot and the stage of the water above gives promise that a slow decline will be shown henceforth. The Tensas water from the Biggs crevasse showed a smaller rise in the past 24 hours than since the flood reached the section of country adjacent to Natchez. Some planters who had removed their stock from the bottoms have begun arrangements to take it back and prepare for planting, but others claim the rise now in progress in Black river will push the crevasse water much higher in Tensas basin and will make no move toward resuming work on their plantations until the stage of water at Natchez is such as to check the inflow through the Biggs crevasse just below there.

FAREWELL TO BAYARD.

Retiring Ambassador Given a Banquet by the American Society.

LONDON, May 8.—The farewell banquet given last night by the American Society in London to Mr. Bayard, former ambassador of the United States, was attended by 270 guests. The company included Ambassador Hay, Mrs. Hay and all the members of the American embassy, the lord bishop of London (Dr. Creighton), Baron Russell of Killowen, the lord chief justice, Sir Francis and Lady Jenne, Sir Edwin Arnold, Sir Henry Thompson, Lady Randolph Churchill, Lady Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vivian and Miss Genevieve Ward, the actress. But there was a notable absence of the majority of the best known Americans residing in London.

SHORTAGE IN FUNDS.

Carlessness Is Given as a Reason For the Disappearance of the Money.

SIDNEY, O., May 8.—In the change of city treasurers here a shortage of $3,208 was developed. The shortage dates back to 1874, when S. McCullough was treasurer. He served as treasurer until his death in 1891, and since then John McCune has been serving. The shortage came about, it is thought, through carelessness, as there are no evidences of fraud. McCune says he knew of the matter when he entered the office, but thought nothing would come of it. Since turning over his books McCune checked over his bankbooks and found a credit of $2,397, reducing the shortage that much.

IN MEMORY OF GRANT.

Yang Yu Plants a Tree Where the General Lay So Long.

NEW YORK, May 8.—As a tribute to the memory of General Grant, Yang Yu, former minister from China to the United States, has planted a tree in the ground under which the casket of General Grant lay for 14 years. The tree is called Chungking-blo, by Chinese botanists, and is said to grow to a height of about 100 feet.

GREEKS PREFER WAR

Would Rather Be Exterminated Than Withdraw From Crete.

DANGER OF THE ROYAL FAMILY.

Associated Press' Account of the Fighting at and Around Pharsalos—Greeks Moved Down on a Stone Bridge—Turks Meet With Strong Resistance at Vasil, but Capture the Place.

PHARSALOS, May 8.—An engagement began early yesterday near Velestino and lasted several hours, the Greeks being finally beaten back. They have retreated upon Volo, sharply pursued by the Turks.

The consuls at Volo have decided to ask the foreign warships to land detachments, and have promised to protect the town.

An Athens dispatch says the intervention communications from the powers have not yet been received. The Greek government has notified the powers that the Greek fleet has established an effective blockade of the coast of Epirus.

It is said positively that if the powers insist on the withdrawal of the Greek troops from Crete as a condition of mediation, Greece will reply that she prefers war, even to extermination.

GREEK RETREAT.

Terrible Slaughter at Pharsalos—Unerring Aim of Turkish Batteries.

LONDON, May 8.—The Associated Press correspondent at Pharsalos under date of May 6, writing of the fighting of that day says: "The Turkish army to-day is bivouacking in the 18 villages surrounding Pharsalos, captured from the Greeks. The battle began at 9 o'clock in the morning. After skirmishes between the advance posts of the opposing forces, the Greek artillery opened fire with great precision. But the Turks pushed forward exposing themselves to the enemies' fire with the greatest sangfroid.

"The Greeks then made a fatal error in leaving the commanding position which they occupied and retreating upon the plain, which was commanded on all points by our batteries, which were brought into action so soon as the Greeks left the hills. The scene which followed was both interesting and cruel. The Greeks from all parts of the plain were converging toward a stone bridge spanning the river, and which was the only means of getting over. The mass of humanity at this point was constantly growing when the roar of the Turkish artillery began. The Turks obtained the exact range of the enemy and shell after shell fell and exploded in the midst of the fugitives. The havoc created by the shrapnel was terrible. Gradually, however, through this devastating fire, the greater part of the Greeks crossed the river. The Turks, who were then covering the plain like bees, met with a strong resistance while attacking Vasil, where the Greeks from hidden positions opened a furious fire. In the face of this the Turks advanced with marvelous temerity and captured the village, not without the loss of many men by the fear which their splendid insouciance inspired in the enemy. Owing to the fact that it was not designed to commence the decisive engagement until today the Turkish division, intending to take the enemy in flank only, arrived half an hour before the close of the combat yesterday, having marched 30 miles.

"The Greek guns while they opened well, ended badly while ours were served even better than usual. The Turkish attack upon Vasil was made without any previous plan. The men were ordered to capture the place and they advanced, quickly shooting as though hunting. The Greeks maintained a withering fire. I saw a Turk wounded in the leg, advancing to the attack on all fours. "During the day the Turks captured

ROYAL FAMILY.

They Rarely Leave the Palace and Are Insulted on the Street.

LONDON, May 8.—The Rome correspondent of the Daily Mail says: Private news from Athens which has escaped censorship shows the position of royalty there to be more perilous than ever. The members of the royal family rarely leave the palace and their portraits have been withdrawn from public view. When the queen and princesses visit the hospitals they are openly insulted in the streets. The palace is watched by revolutionary agents lest their majesties should attempt to flee the country. It is said that Turkey is really the chief hindrance to the powers proposing mediation, as the porte claims the right to finish the war in the ordinary way.

Great Skill of the Turks.

LONDON, May 8.—The correspondent of The Times at Pharsalos says: "Great skill is displayed in the strategy of the Turks. In the fighting at Velestino the Turks under Hakkı Pasha stormed the first line of the intrenchments of the Greek, who abandoned the second line during the night. Hakkı Pasha then occupied the position, the Greeks having retreated upon Volo. The whole length of railway connecting Trikala, Velestino and Larissa is now in possession of the Turks. This second general fight of the Greek army, as it is called, they will refuse to fight a pitched battle, but their method of conducting a campaign is difficult to understand. The general idea is that the war is over."

SERIOUS AFFAIR.

Two Angry Men Use Knife and Pistol on Each Other.

BRAZIL, Ind., May 8.—Albert Wolfe and Henry Stangle met on the streets yesterday and began shooting and cutting each other. There has been trouble between the two men for some time, Wolfe being already under $500 bond to keep the peace with Stangle. When the men met, Stangle, it is alleged, drew a revolver and Wolfe a knife, with the result that the latter was shot in the breast and the former cut three times across the breast and once down the back. Then Wolfe disarmed Stangle and fired three shots at him as the latter fled. It is feared that the wound in Stangle's back has penetrated the lung, as he is in a critical condition. Wolfe has only an ugly flesh wound. The latter is the son of the proprietor of the Clay County Enterprise.

BLUFFTON, Ind., May 8.—Gus Bower, a timber buyer of Kenton, O., was struck by a Cloverleaf train yesterday and knocked 15 feet resulting in a contusion of the skull.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, May 7, 1897.

Increased harmony in republican ranks and increased dissensions among democrats are the leading features of this week's developments in Washington. The republican members of the senate finance committee, who have been laboriously engaged upon the tariff bill, have exercised such good judgment and tact in shaping the bill that there is reason to believe that every republican vote and the vote of every man who in past years co-operated with the party will be for the bill, and this insures its early passage and enactment as a law. While this drift toward harmony is clearly apparent among the republicans, the mad rush in the direction of party dissensions is even more apparent among the democrats. Half of the members of that party in the house have chosen to follow the leadership of that most erratic and extreme of the populist leaders, Jerry Simpson, while the other half have fallen into line behind Congressman Bailey, thus absolutely dividing in two equal factions the democratic party in the house of representatives. When it is remembered that there is still a third faction of the party in the Cleveland element, and even a fourth in that wing of the party which is now supporting protection, it will be seen that the divisions are such as to leave the democratic party in a very much distracted condition, while the republicans are not only thoroughly harmonious, but bringing back into their ranks, on the tariff question, those who temporarily alienated themselves on currency issues.

THE DIVIDED DEMOCRACY.

The important feature of the week was the test vote in the house on Jerry Simpson's demand that the Speaker should appoint the committees. This had been a troublesome question to the democracy, for that element which favored co-operation with the populists in the last campaign had clung to Simpson and supported his demand, while Mr. Bailey, who was the democratic caucus nominee for the speakership, has opposed Simpson's proposition. This had already created a division between the members of the party favoring a continuance of the alliance with the populists and those who were opposed to further association with this element of American politics. The feeling between these two factions had grown intense, and the final struggle came in the vote on a motion to require the speaker to appoint committees. Upon this motion one-half of the democrats voted with Bailey after he had made a strong appeal to the democrats in the house to cease quarrelling among themselves, while the other half voted with Simpson. It thus appears that the democratic party in the house is split squarely in the middle upon the question of further co-operation with the populists. This is especially interesting in view of the fact that all the democrats in the house belong to that wing of the democracy which supported the Bryan ticket in 1896. This makes it apparent that even the Bryan wing of the party is split in the middle. When it is taken into consideration that the gold democrats are still maintaining their organization as a party, and that the considerable section of the silver democrats are now favoring protection and even voting for it in congress, it will be seen that the democratic party is more hopelessly divided today even than it was in the campaign of 1896.

THE TARIFF BILL.

The tariff bill has been completed, so far as relates to the senate finance committee and is now ready for consideration by the senate. How long it will be before that body cannot of course be foretold, but outlook for reasonable degree of speed in its consideration appears to be good, and there is good reason to believe that it will be upon the statute books by the end of the fiscal year. Members of both parties are recognizing the fact that nothing so disturbs the business conditions of the country, both among the manufacturers and others as the pendency of a tariff measure of any sort, because of the fact that business contracts and undertakings cannot be entered upon without definite knowledge as to what the prices on imported articles or the rates of duty will be. These facts are leading men, irrespective of party, to a desire for prompt action since they know that a business revival cannot be expected by anybody until the tariff can be put into operation and the immense stock of foreign goods now coming into the country disposed of and the market opened to our own manufacturers.

CHEERING NEWS FOR THE FARMERS.

The department of agriculture is receiving very gratifying reports from the farming community. The continuation of high prices for wheat, the unusual foreign demand for corn and the activity among farmers in preparing to make an earnest experiment in the production of sugar beets, combine to make the condition among that class of population unusually healthful and encouraging. "Dollar wheat," for which farmers had scarcely dared to hope, was co-existent with the incoming of McKinley, while the extraordinary demand for their corn adds to their general encouragement. Coupled with this comes the activity and interest felt in the experiments which are to be made in all parts of the country in the production of our own sugar, and it is apparent that the farming community is not only feeling the return of prosperity, but is occupying its mind with cheerful thoughts and prospects rather than the gloomy ones which were a constant feature of the four years of the Cleveland administration.

POLITICAL BREVITIES.

There is no secret about the desire of Claude Matthews to succeed Senator Turpie at Washington.

Dr. R. D. Hawley, of Columbus, candidate for congress, says he expects the solid support of the Bartholomew county delegation, the Herald to the contrary notwithstanding.

John Overmyer, the banker of North Vernon, who aspires to rattle around in the seat in congress so long filled by Judge Holman, has issued his platform for the campaign before the democratic convention "and its liberal allies."

The new pension board as mentioned in another column is all right. All three of the members are reputable physicians each of whom enjoys a good practice. They will render intelligent service as pension examining surgeons.

Hon. John Overmyer, of North Vernon, has resigned his position as president of a bank and has become a candidate for congress. Mr. Overmyer's political career has been so checkered that it is thought he can successfully cater to the whims and caprices of all political parties. He is now a democrat of the regulation W. J. Bryan variety but has been a republican, and has vacillated between the big tents sufficient to become acquainted with the side shows.—Greensburg Standard.

The Evening News aside from the issue of Mr. Miller's sidewalk is incidentally favoring the educational trust in Indiana which went before the last legislature asking for special appropriations amounting to about $300,000, over and above the special tax for the three state institutions which amount to $200,000 annually. A great friend of the people is "The Only."

He was originally from Crawfordsville, this state.

HEAVY DAMAGES.

Jury Gives a Woman $5,000 For Falling on a Sidewalk.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., May 8.—Mrs. Julia Falk, a widow, was yesterday awarded $5,000 damages in her action against the city of Huntington by a jury in the Wabash court. In 1895 Mrs. Falk fell on a board sidewalk here, sustaining injuries which produced almost entire paralysis. She commenced suit for $5,000. The city took a change of venue to Wabash county and the case has been on trial since Wednesday. The jury rendered a verdict for the full amount. This is the third heavy verdict against this city in damage cases in the last 18 months in the Wabash court.

RUN DOWN AND KILLED.

Old Man Crawling Over a Trestle Mistaken For a Hog by an Engineer.

ORLEANS, Ind., May 8.—An old man named Hutchason was run over and killed by a train on the Orleans branch of the Monon yesterday at Lost river, four miles south of here. Both legs were cut off above the knees. He was about 80 years old. He was crawling on the trestle and was mistaken by the engineer for a hog until too near to stop the engine. He is supposed to have been demented. His remains were taken to Paoli for burial.

Close Call For a Stump Dynamiter.

CHESTERFIELD, Ind., May 8.—John M. Bronnberg, a farmer near here, engaged in blowing up stumps with dynamite charged five stumps and lighted the fuses. Four of the charges exploded, but the fifth hung fire. Becoming satisfied that the fuse had failed, he was about to apply a second one when there was an explosion which tore the stump to pieces. One section of it struck Bronnberg's felt hat, tearing it off his head and carrying it 100 feet away. Bronnberg lay for an hour unconscious.

Christian Ministers to Meet.

WARABH, Ind., May 8.—The Northern Indiana Christian Ministerial association will meet here next week. Secretary of State William D. Owen, who was formerly a minister of the church, will deliver an address on "Alexander Campbell." The association was organized 33 years ago. Elder L. L. Carpenter of this city was a charter member, of which there were 14. All are dead except Mr. Carpenter, who has officiated at the funeral of seven of the organizers. The organization now has 125 members.

Secured Money and Jewelry.

MUNCIE, Ind., May 8.—John White's residence, in the central part of the city, was robbed yesterday in broad daylight of $50 and a quantity of jewelry. When leaving, he fired a shot to scare the boy, who fainted.

Appointed to a Cadetship.

VINCENNES, Ind., May 8.—Congressman Miers has recommended the appointment of Harry Seelye Watts of this city to the cadetship at West Point. The vacancy was caused by the failure of Ira Reedy of this city to pass examination.

Morgan Chandler's Will.

GREENFIELD, Ind., May 8.—Mr. E. E. Galbreath of Los Angeles, Cal., through his attorneys, will institute suit in the Hancock circuit court to set aside the last will and testament of the late Morgan Chandler, cashier of the Greenfield Banking company. The estate is worth about $50,000.

Narrow Escape From Suffocation.

BROWNSTOWN, Ind., May 8.—Charles Hawn and other employees were digging a deep trench for drainage purposes when the earth caved in, completely burying Hawn. He was dug out barely in time to prevent suffocation.

Kouts Business Man Missing.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out, and this tube restored to its normal condition or hearing will be destroyed forever, nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75 cents. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

THAT AERIAL WONDER AGAIN.

Seen By a Number of Seymour's Truthful Citizens.

That air ship has been seen again, and this time by so many of our good citizens that it would be hazardous to treat the matter as a joke. About nine o'clock last evening a huge body was discovered high up in the air and approaching our city at fearful speed from the south. The alarm was given, and instantly the streets were thronged with wondering gazers.

Sure enough, there it was. Huge in proportions, it hung like an evil monster in the air, but the darkness of the night made it impossible to see anything but the headlight as it shot through space like a Chinese sky rocket. It was too far away to discern the flutter of its gigantic wings as it cut the air, or to hear the strains of the brass band which it is said to carry on board. Mayor Baisley was slaking his thirst at Cox's soda counter when the appearance of the airship was announced, and he at once took to the street and watched the flight of the aerial wonder with as much interest as he did the course of rebel shells at Gettysburg. Henry Price said it was Fish Commissioner Sweeney looking for violators of the new fish law; John Ross said it was Coxey's army "keeping off the grass." Dr. Jim Shields said it was a committee of politicians from Louisville on their way to Chicago to help their Illinois friends defeat the Humphrey bill.

Meanwhile, as the light in the air-ship faded away in the distance, two small boys, who had sent up the paper balloon, sneaked off home and laughed themselves to sleep.

LA FAYETTE'S FAMOUS VISIT.

There was Great Excitement Over His Trip to the United States.

Jean Frakey Hallowell, who writes in The Ladies' Home Journal of "When Lafayette Rode Into Philadelphia," says that "it is difficult to understand at this late date what a furor of excitement passed over this country when Lafayette arrived once more in America. The visit is a historic event to be remembered while memory endures. During President Monroe's second administration the United States extended its invitation to Lafayette. He arrived at Staten Island on Aug. 15 (Sunday), 1824, accompanied by his son, George Washington Lafayette, and also by his son-in-law. A formal reception took place on the following day, the first fruits of the most abundant harvest of welcome which Lafayette was to receive during his year of travel through the United States.

"Lafayette was 67 years old when he visited America as the nation's guest and carried his years lightly. His head was shaped like that of Burns. He had a high forehead, long, aquiline nose and a rather thin face. His hair was sandy and quite plentiful. His eyes were dark gray, restless and twinkling, his eyebrows light in color, but heavily marked. His mouth was firm, and his lips smiled courteously at the holiday crowd assembled to do him honor. The general was not very tall, but well made. His face was distinctly pleasant, and its expression was an odd mixture of shrewdness, decision and gay good humor. His costume was a swallow-tailed coat and trousers of dark brown, with a great display of white waistcoat and neckcloth. A bunch of seals hung from a broad black ribbon at his waist. Over his shoulders hung a cloth riding cloak, greenish blue in color and lined with red."

Kipling's Famous Poem.

It is the sentiment, says Arlo Bates in The Atlantic, and not the object, which arouses sympathy and kindles the imagination. No mistake could be more complete than to suppose that in this poem is to be found any argument in favor of the use of machinery as material for poetry. In "McAndrew's Hymn" it is the character of the stanch old engineer and his feelings by which the reader is moved. The wonders of the great engine are a hindrance, and not a help, if they are looked at in any way other than through the eyes of McAndrew. The piece succeeds or fails to the degree in which it makes his emotion real and contagious to the reader, and that, too, as emotion pure and simple, quite without regard to what has excited it. In so far as the attention is caught by tailored, crank throws, feeding pump and "purrin' dynamo"—finely suggestive as is the epithet in this last—the emotional effect is weakened at the expense of the intellectual.

John Wilhelm Surprised and Surrenders.

Last night when the members of Sac's Division U. R. K. of P. "lined up" One of the members was "voted absent." At fifteen minutes past nine o'clock, Capt. Graessle ordered the company down on the brick streets, but to their surprise they soon found themselves on "the march." After making a few turns "to the right," the command "halt," was given. No sooner were the men "lined up," than one of their number was commanded to go in and make inquiry for the absent Sir Knight. His best girl answered the call, and said, "He's present." He appeared on the veranda, and blushing made the following speech: "Sir Knights, captain and brothers, quietly I will fall in line, march to Frank Gates' ice cream parlors and 'set 'em up.'" This he did and in consideration of his knightly liberality the "boys" remitted the fine, he promising never again to absent himself on "drill night."

Poisons engendered by food fermenting in a dyspeptic stomach are the direct cause of rheumatism, gout, bronchitis, liver and kidney complaints, asthma, pneumonia and many nervous ailments.

These results are prevented by the use of the Shaker Digestive Cordial, a remedy discovered and prepared by the Shakers of Mount Lebanon, N. Y. It is in itself a food and has power to digest other food taken with it. Thus it rests the diseased stomach and finally masters the worst cases of dyspepsia. It acts promptly and fresh strength and increase of weight soon follows. The first dose taken immediately after eating, abates the pain and distress so dreaded by dyspeptics. Trial bottles—enough to prove its merit—10 cents. Laxol is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in the place of Castor Oil.

AFTER THE QUACKS.

State Medical Board to Begin Issuing Licenses Next Week.

The state medical board adjourned yesterday noon after announcing that it would be ready by next Friday to begin the work of licensing the six thousand practicing physicians in the state. Members of the board stated that they proposed to exercise the utmost care in excluding all "quacks" and "itinerants" from the practice. They proposed to make a rigid examination of the diplomas of practicing physicians and require an examination from all those who do not hold a diploma from some college in good repute in the profession. They declare that Indiana has suffered greatly from incompetent doctors and they propose to use all the power at their command to put an end to irregular practice. Inasmuch as those physicians who are refused a license have a right under the law to appeal to the circuit court, it seems likely that the courts may have their hands full in reviewing the work of the medical board.

John P. McLean's Great Newspaper.

Without a single exception, there is no paper of greater or more popular newspaper in the United States than the Cincinnati Enquirer; or a more successful publisher than its proprietor, Mr. John P. McLean.

The old-time prices for the Daily Enquirer have been maintained, and its circulation largely increased each year; hard times and cheaper journals failing to arrest its onward march and high appreciation of the public for its true worth and merit.

The Weekly Enquirer at beginning of the campaign year was offered at 50 cents a year, and its circulation increased by the addition of over 200,000 new subscribers; the most substantial and coveted testimonial a publisher could desire.

When asked for the secret of such success, Mr. McLean frankly answers: The Enquirer has no opinions to force upon its patrons, it simply prints the facts and tells the truth that the reader may form his own opinions. By maintaining the price of the paper, more news and greater variety can be furnished, and every class of business interests catered to, which a cheaper journal cannot afford.

The very liberal support given the Enquirer by the public at large, makes incumbent upon the management to serve it faithfully with zeal and enterprise in minor matters as well as those of greater magnitude.

Senator Fairbanks has recommended the appointment of the following pension board for Jackson county, Dr. Lindley Ruddick, of Seymour; Dr. James K. Ritter, of Brownstown; Dr. P. A. Zuring, of Tampico.

Senator Fairbanks and First Assistant Postmaster General Heath had a consultation yesterday over a proposition to create a new division in the postal service, with headquarters at Indianapolis. Mr. Heath was of opinion that the change would not be made without specific authority under an act of Congress, but he was not certain on that point, and promised to look into it. It may be assumed that if it lies in General Heath's power to create an Indiana division it will be done.

The Best Remedy for Rheumatism.

From the Fairhaven, N. Y., Register.

Mr. James Rowland of this village, states that for twenty-five years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism. A few nights ago she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy. She sent Mr. Rowland for the doctor, but he had read of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and instead of going for the physician he went to the store and secured a bottle of it. His wife did not approve of Mr. Rowland's purchase at first, but nevertheless applied the Balm thoroughly and in an hour's time was able to go to sleep. She now applies it whenever she feels an ache or a pain and finds that it always gives relief. He says that no medicine which she had used ever did her as much good.
